Staff Dress Code

Chester Public Library employees are expected to maintain a neat, clean, and professional appearance appropriate for a public library setting and interaction with patrons.

Dress Requirements:

- Staff should wear clean, neat, business-casual clothing appropriate for the workplace.
- The Chester Public Library-provided polo shirt may be worn at any time.
- Clothing must not display logos, commercial advertising, political messages, slogans, or campaign materials.
- T-shirts, including graphic or novelty T-shirts, are not permitted.
- Clothing that is excessively revealing, torn, or otherwise inappropriate for a professional workplace is not permitted.
- Footwear must be clean, appropriate, and safe for the employee's job duties.

The Library Director may make exceptions for specific programs, events, work assignments, or other circumstances.

The Library Director is responsible for enforcing this policy.
